

BAHÁ'Í SCHOOL STANDARDS

To preserve and enhance group unity and respect the standards of our Faith, the Bahá'í School Committee has adopted standards for all of us while at school. Each of these standards is designed to protect the Faith, the school, and the participants. They are fully obligatory for all attendees. Parents/Sponsors should make sure that children and youth understand the standards.

- A. Class attendance is required for all ages.
- B. Pets are not allowed at the seasonal schools.
- C. Each child/youth under age 18 who attends the school without a parent must be accompanied by a sponsor who will be responsible for the child's welfare and conduct. Sponsors should be 21 or older, considerably more mature than and of the same sex as those sponsored. The only exception is that a Grandparent, aunt or uncle may sponsor a related child of either sex. No adult should sponsor more than two children in addition to his/her own.
- D. Parents and sponsors of all children as well as youth are completely responsible for their charges at all times when students are not in class. This includes meal times, free times, and evenings.
- E. Accidents or illness should be reported to the First Aid Staff or School Director. Medical releases for minors (18 and under) are necessary, even if parents are on campus.
- F. Visitors and day students should check in at Registration.
- G. The YMCA has a non-smoking policy in all facilities.
- H. YMCA has QUIET HOUR beginning at 11:00 pm. Please be quiet in the halls of the Rams Horn Lodge, young children may be sleeping. Also be aware of your noise level in your room in the late evenings, some folks go to bed early.
- I. A curfew of 9:30 pm is suggested for those ages 10 and under. Inglis Hall will lock up at 10:30, please head to your cabin and be ready for lights out 11:00 p.m. for all ages.
- J. Please clean up after yourselves and help keep the lodge clean.
- K. No drugs or alcohol will be tolerated.
- L. No firearms or martial arts items will be permitted.
- M. We will adhere strictly to the code of conduct and dress as prescribed by Shoghi Effendi. High standards of morality, courtesy, cleanliness and modesty of dress will be upheld.
- N. Disobedience of these rules may result in dismissal from the school.
- O. Questions on school standards may be referred to the School committee.
